snoring.

When I went to a hotel with my aunt it was fun until sleeping came because she snored louder than you think she would.
I had to sleep with her it was amazing! If she was in a snoring contest she would win. I was a little bit annoyed. I couldn't sleep.
No one could with her ^{snoring} not even a deep sleeper. I made a bad choice by sleeping with her. The next morning we woke up and saw we had a good time at the hotel. I was the best.

What did the snoring sound like? Did it remind you of something you heard before?
